7-day without walking holiday - Scotland

Whisky, Gin & Kilt

p.P. incl. flight € 1.840,-

Day 1: Arrival – Keith – Forres

Flight to Aberdeen. Continue to Keith to the first source of the water of life "Uisge Beatha" the Strathisla Distillery - Home of Chivas Regal. Tasting! After the first attunement to the Scottish distillery, we continue to Forres to the first accommodation. In the afternoon we visit the Benromach Distillery. Guided tour! Whisky tasting! Red Door Gin Tasting! A cozy evening at the hotel bar concludes the first evening.

Day 2: Forres – Charlestown of Aberlour

After the first Highlander breakfast, it can start strengthened again. First goal of today: Glenfarclas Distillery. The Glenfarclas 105 is one of the most traditional Cask Strength Scotch. Tasting! We leave the valley of the green grass (Glenfarclas) and drive to the small town Charlestown of Aberlour. This is where you first get lodgings before you go to one of the legendary whisky tastings: the Aberlour Distillery. Guided tour! Tasting! But Aberlour is also home to the famous "Walker biscuits" and the flag-ship store is right next to our hotel. The day will end in the "Mashtun" pub.

Day 3: Aberlour - Grantown on Spey - Ballindalloch

First, we're in the largest city of our trip to Grantown on Spey.

Today we start with Gin and visit the Caorunn Gin Distillery in Cromdale. Guided tour! Tasting! Then it's literally paradise in the Speyside region after Ballindalloch. Here we spend the rest of the day in one of Scotland's best B & B's at Cragganmore House and Delnahaugh Hotel. The dinner at Cragganmore House is amazing! The Cragganmore Distillery is just behind. Tasting!

Day 4: Ballindalloch

We first enjoy our breakfast and then head off to a real gem: the Ballindalloch Castle & Garden. Family-owned since 1546, it is considered the pearl of the north. On the way back we visit the Ballindalloch Distillery. The special thing about it: all production processes are still done here. Guided tour! Tasting! We enjoy the evening with Toni's finest culinary art.

Day 5: Ballindalloch - Tomintoul

Today we head to the highest village in the Scottish Highlands to Tomintoul with great views of the typical highland mountains. This is where real Highlander feeling comes on. An extraordinary Whisky & Gin Tasting awaits at "Whisky Castle & Highland Market". A legend! A selection of 600 single malts and over 100 gins are available. We are happy to face this seductive challenge. Then there is still enough time for shopping.

Day 6: Ballindalloch - Dufftown - Glenlivet

Dufftown - the capital of the Scotch whiskey with 7 distilleries awaits us. The city saying reads: "Rome was built on seven hills, Dufftown stands on seven hills". How true. Our goal: the largest and still family-owned Glenfiddich Distillery in the Valley of the deer (Glenfiddich) Guided tour! Tasting! The city also offers us the whisky museum, the clock tower and much more. As the last distillery our tour we will visit the location in a beautiful valley Glenlivet Distillery. Tasting! Back in Ballindalloch we treat ourselves for the last time to this wonderful landscape and remember the unforgettable impressions that we have collected here.
